

one penny red wine

one penny red believes in sourcing wines from growers who make wine with integrity and have respect for the land. In many cases the winemaking approach in the vineyard is sustainable, organic and/or biodynamic. These wines are labour intensive and made by hand, some by conventional means others by adopting a minimal intervention approach where its common place to allow fermentations to occur naturally with indigenous wild yeasts. There are wines that have low or no sulphur dioxide added, others are not fined or filtered.

Mostly these wines are fresh and alive, and love being enjoyed with food to show off their personality.

We hope you enjoy our selection of these hand crafted wines and take away the experience of trying something delicious and accessible.

Be sure to look out for our winery profiles discussing some of our favourite wines currently available.

Cheers.

The Coravin® system

The Coravin® system is a unique wine preservation system. It allows us to offer you wine by the glass from our best, rare bottles. No removal of foil or cork is required in order to access the wine, just a thin, hollow needle is inserted through the cork to extract the wine; at the same time an odourless and tasteless gas is inserted into the bottle to replace the space created by the extracted wine.

our selection of wines by the bottle are featured on the following pages.

one penny red resident wine

montevecchio is an range of estate grown and hand made wines from the chalmers family's heathcote vineyard. with over 20 years experience in sustainable winemaking, and through their vine nursery established in the 1990's the chalmers family have helped pioneer the grape selection available to us today. the montevecchio wines are inspired by everyday drinking wines which are fresh and vibrant - often regional field blends - and designed to be enjoyed in their youth, while still showing structure and texture.

*Ashton Hills, Adelaide Hills

Stephen George is one of the great producers of pinot noir. We also love his Salmon Brut. This delicious wine takes its colour from the addition of a little table pinot noir like they do in Champagne rosé. It's a charismatic sparkling wine overflowing with juicy, crunchy red fruits and its fine balance and savoury finish makes it difficult to stop drinking.

*Weingut Joh. Jos. Prüm, Mosel

Since the early 1920's the wines of Prüm have been among Germany's best. With their rieslings being light in body but intense in flavour, the steep terraced grey slate helps provide a racy elegance resulting in beautifully balanced wines

This is a serious chenin, 100% organic chenin blanc, from a small vineyard in Willyabrup sub region. Hand picked, whole bunch pressed straight to barrel for wild ferment. Battonaged with extra love & bottled with no additives, fining nor filtration on a bright sunny fruit day. yum!

*Kumeu River, Kumeu

The Hunting Hill vineyard was planted in 1982 with just a few barrels kept for a single vineyard wine. Affectionately known as the Pulingy - Montrachet of the New World, these wines often win when tasted blind against the big boys of burgundy. Pure class & a step above from a generous vintage.

Aligoté is the second white grape variety produced in Burgundy. Historically known for mostly making "thirst wines" which were mainly drunk by locals, however it's emerging as a very delicious and textural grape variety with Fanny Sabre at the helm.

*Eldridge Estate, Mornington Peninsula

A benchmark Australian gamay. This is a single vineyard wine planted in 1984. The 2014 is another great release from David Lloyd. This wine shows cherry, sweet spice, malt, clove and rose petals. On the palate, its crisp red fruits, cranberry and then finishes with tight yet refreshing acidity.

*Jean-Jacque Morel, Burgundy.

Jean-Jacque Morels' philosophies are pretty extreme and are so labour intensive that they can only be applied on a small artisan domaine like his. With an annual production of just 650 dozen, he uses no chemicals instead allowing the natural grasses and flora to coexist with the vines.

*Rioja.

Rioja occupies relatively high ground (300 - 650 mtr) in the north of Castile, which crosses into the lower Basque country, so there are 'many Riojas' to discover and interpret, for example Palacios Remondo grow their fruit on the high slopes that delivers a wine full of Mediterranean orchard fruit aromas including nectarines and pomegranates. On the other hand Valenciso made just 3000 bottles of the 10 Años Después Rioja, where it was aged in cement for 5 years before seeing any oak. There's lots to discover about Rioja.

*Fletcher Wines, Piedmont.

Whether he is making wine in the Pyrenees' Malakoff vineyard or in the hilltops of Castiglione Falletto, Aussie Dave Fletcher is addicted to Nebbiolo! His Langhe X13 blend of Sourced from across Alba, the wine is textbook young Nebbiolo with supporting acting from Cabernet and Merlot, the breakdown is all thirds, yet the Nebbiolo is the standout. It's dark fruit and it's not afraid to show it. Big tannins, ripe fruit, dark cocoa and barrel spice please your palate. This is a smash and grab Langhe Rosso experience, ultimately classy and supremely structured Nebbiolo.

*Jamsheed Wines, Victoria.

Gary Mill's approach in the Jamsheed winery is staunchly pre-industrial and reminds us most of the Hermitage purist; long macerations, wild yeast fermentation, high proportion of whole bunches, no additions except for a little sulphur dioxide and no fining or filtration. The use of oak is restricted to used and larger format barrels. These Syrah's from Beechworth are handpicked from the prized Warner Vineyard, in the foothills of the Alpine Valley, on soils composed of granitic-loam over clay and areas of slate and shale.
